

SOME MEMORIAL INSCRIPTIONS IN ST JOHN SUB CASTRO CHURCHYARD

(Numbers are grave numbers - please refer to our history website sjsc-history.org)

008

Come to a world so wonderful
Plucked like a flower in bloom
So young and yet so beautiful
Taken away so soon

012

Thy will not mine O Lord

Mine eyes shall see the King in his Heaven

016

Out of the stress of the doing, into the peace of the done

020

Until the day break and shadows flee away

045

I have loved thee with an everlasting love

068

Thy way not mine O Lord

A faithful friend loving and loved by all
His loss creates a blank we cannot fill
In sorrow to Almighty God we call
To give us strength to bow before his will

090

Always smiling, happy and kind
Beautiful memories left behind

106

His memory is as dear today
As in the hour he passed away

I know that my redeemer liveth

110

A light has from our household gone
A voice we love is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled

156

And Jesus called a little child unto him

238

I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever

279

Meet me in Heaven

316

With Christ which is far better (Phil.1.23)

459

I ask him to receive me

Will he say nay

Not till earth and not till heaven

Pass away

607

Here honest industry resigns his trust

And in the grave returns to native dust

His life was cheered with competence and peace

E're death gave comfort in a calm release

Through many changing scenes of life she past

But hark, the hope of Heaven at last

The buss of heaven her spirit now does share ('buss' is an archaic word meaning 'kiss')

For a place of glory may we prepare

612

To perpetuate his memory this tablet is erected by a few friends to whom his worth was known and who viewed with sincere regret his departure

623

Though death divides,

Fond memories cling

642

Farewell dear mother a long farewell

For we shall meet no more

Till we are raised with Christ to dwell

On Zion's happy shore

643

Whilst in this world I did remain

My latter days were grief and pain

But when the Lord he thought it best

He took me to a place of rest

664

Till we meet again

667

Sincere and true in Heart and Mind

677

My flesh and my heart faileth, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion for ever
Psalm 73 v 25

679

The trumpet shall sound and the dead shall be raised, and we shall be changed

683

The rising morn cannot ensure
That we shall live the day
For death stands waiting at the door
To take our lives away

689B

With Christ, which is far better

689F

I was so long with pain opprest
That wore my strength away
It made me long for endless rest
Which never can decay

691

Looking for that blessed hope and glorious appearing of the great God and Saviour
Jesus Christ" (Titus 2.13)

693

Jesus said feed my lambs (on the grave of the Headmistress of South Malling School)

696

Those we love in life, let us not forget in death

698

Sleep on beloved and take thy rest

709

Mark the perfect man and behold the upright
For the end of that man is peace

712

At the rising and setting of the sun
We will remember

714

I sought the Lord and he heard me and delivered me from all my fears Psalm XXXIV.1

720

I am the resurrection and the life

725

She died in Peace looking unto Jesus

729

The days are gone and thou art free
Alike from sin and pain
Our loss is more than tongue can tell
That loss to thee is gain

737

Nothing in my hand I bring
Simply to thy cross I cling
What though in lonely grief I sigh
For friends beloved no longer nigh
Submissive would I still reply
"Thy will be done"

738
